

PATRONS OF CHATSWORTH

BECOME PART OF OUR STORY AS A PATRON OF CHATSWORTH

Chatsworth has been home to the Devonshire family for almost five centuries. It has passed through 16 generations, each of which have shaped the estate and collections, leaving a legacy of creativity and custodianship – which continues to this day.

The heritage under Chatsworth's stewardship comprises the historic buildings - the Grade I listed house and stables; the landscape - a 105-acre garden and a 1,822- acre park and one of Europe's most significant art collections – The Devonshire Collections.

The Chatsworth House Trust, a registered charity since 1981, was established to maintain and preserve the house, garden, parkland and collections for the benefit of everyone. Every penny of the admissions we receive from our visitors goes back into the charity, alongside money from sponsors, trusts and foundations and donors to support the ever-expanding list of essential conservation, maintenance and restoration as well as supporting our extensive learning programme.

By becoming a patron of Chatsworth you will play a significant role in helping the Trust continue the legacy of care and custodianship of this thriving cultural organisation.

“The Patrons Programme is a unique opportunity to experience some of the best that Chatsworth has to offer in an exclusive environment. Meeting the family and experts from across the Trust enables a fascinating insight and knowledge that enhances the whole Chatsworth experience.”

YOUR SUPPORT

As custodians it is our responsibility to maintain, repair and restore all elements of our built environment. This does not just include the house and stables, but the structures in the park, the garden features and ornaments and all the hidden infrastructure required to make Chatsworth function.

The urgent conservation backlog is estimated to be at least £1.5m and structural renovations are estimated to be in excess of £30m for which your support will be critical.

Your patronage will play a vital role in supporting the long-term aims of the Chatsworth House Trust helping to ensure as many people as possible are able to enjoy all we have to offer for many years to come.
